

QUALITY TEACHING FOR ENGLISH LEARNERS

LONG-TERM ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNER SERVICES

QTEL provides customized services for educators of long-term ELs at varying levels of academic and language proficiency that build teacher capacity in addressing their specific needs.

AUDIENCES

- * School districts and schools that work with long term EL students who may have “plateaued” or become unmotivated and wish to build capacity in improving outcomes for this population.
- * Educators who teach students at varying levels of language proficiency simultaneously and struggle to engage all students.
- * Teachers and school leaders who wish to prepare their long-term English Learners to think critically, problem solve creatively, communicate effectively, navigate multiple literacies, and collaborate productively.

BENEFITS

QTEL Service	Benefits for educators of Long term English Learners
PD Institutes	Participants develop expertise in providing rich, well scaffolded educational opportunities to apprentice students into working with grade level tasks and disciplinary concepts.
Coaching	Participants benefit from classroom observations, deep reflective discussions of practice, and specific feedback for growth based on the individual needs of the educators and the long term English Learners they serve.
PD Certification	Participant educators develop capacity in presenting QTEL PD targeted to the specific needs of long term EL populations in individual schools or entire districts.
Materials Development	Curricular units and lessons that are designed for specific schools and districts and the long term English Learners they serve. These units include high interest lessons that challenge long term ELs while providing them with the high support required to access grade level texts and disciplinary concepts and realize their immense potential.

